flower exhibition, food and wine, entertainment and opportunities to see and experience the local culture.

During the last weekend of May, in the historic centre of Rosignano Monferrato, an extraordinary exhibition of prestigious high-quality embroidery is held, with exhibitors coming from all over Italy and abroad, as part of the "Riso e Rose in Monferrato" (Rice & Rose in Monferrato) event.

An internationally renowned event, hosted within the Municipal Theatre of Rosignano Monferrato and in the surrounding streets and squares. Rich in special moments, art exhibitions, and additional events enjoyable by all ages (crafts fair, rose and where the panoramic views and scenes immortalized by the artist in some of his best known works are still unchanged.

Organised by the Ass. Amis dla Curma, the event takes place in the village of Colma di Rosignano Monferrato on the second Saturday in July - a temporary exhibition with the participation of renowned artists, from numerous Italian regions. The picturesque and charming setting of the park of Villa Maria - the summer home and studio of the famous Italian divisionist painter Angelo Morbelli and final goal of the "Morbelliano path" that winds through the hills around Rosignano Monferrato - during the afternoon it is possible to view the works of art and attend the final prize giving ceremony. Morbelli's study and the surrounding park can be visited during the event,

With the backdrop of the fourteenth century church of St. Anthony in the historic heart of Rosignano Monferrato, steeped in art and history, the village of Rosignano and the Ass. Pro Loco plays host to an unmissable summer evening (on the second Saturday in August) starring some of the best wines of the Monferrato wine producing area. An unusual guided wine tasting dedicated to the discovery of the excellence of local Rosignanese wine, combined with traditional local dishes and accompanied by moments of art, music and poetry.

try the local cuisine and walks through the vineyards with - in the background - the warm autumnal colours of the Monferrato hills, rich in their charm and poetry.

This event over time has become the highlight of the Monferrato grape harvest festivals. This regional fair which takes place from morning until late in the evening in the streets and squares of Rosignano Monferrato on the first Sunday of October, is organised by Ass. Pro Loco. A wine fair and market, with numerous colourful handicrafts stalls and the possibility to sample the local wines. This popular and constantly changing folk festival, which flows between art and folklore events, With various performances and entertainment in the streets and squares of the village, opportunities to during the night, embellishing the nativity scenes with lights and decorations which give a touch of magic to the rural environment caught in the dead of winter.

From December 8 to January 6 - in the hamlets of Colma and Garriano - the Ass. Amis dla Curma has been proposing this unique event for years, one of its kind. Through the streets of villages and the surrounding areas, a fascinating pictorial journey winds (at present 63 works of art, some by well-known Italian artists) that visitors can enjoy along a circular route of a few kilometres on foot or by car, enjoying the wonderful breathtaking panorama and the varied artistic interpretations on the theme of the Nativity. The works are particularly fascinating
